

SCONES & SCAMS

Bridging Generations Through Technology & Connection

Busselton Hospice Care Inc. proudly presents the Intergenerational Connectivity Project, an initiative fostering meaningful interactions between Georgiana Molloy Anglican School students and older adults, especially those diagnosed with life-limiting illnesses.

- Learn essential cybersafety skills
- Connect with young mentors
- Enjoy “Scams & Scones” workshops

Event Details:

Wednesday 19th March, Wednesday 26th March, Wednesday 2nd April & Wednesday 9th April | 10:15am to 11:30am

Georgiana Molloy Anglican School,
2 Hawker Approach, Yalyalup

REGISTER NOW!

☎ 9751 1642 | ✉ info@busseltonhospicecareinc.org.au

For more info: 9751 1642 | Visit: busseltonhospicecareinc.org.au

Please park in the main GMAS carpark and sign in at our administration.

You will be directed to our staffroom to meet your young mentors.

Supported by Volunteering WA,
in collaboration with Georgiana
Molloy Anglican School, City of Busselton Library, and WA
Country Health Service.

